NEWS AND INFORMATION FOR THE PARISH OF ALL SAINTS-BY-THE-SEA

WELCOME TO ALL SAINTS-BY-THE-SEA EPISCOPAL CHURCH!

August 7, 2016

It is wonderful to worship with one another in song, prayer, praise and in sharing a holy meal of bread and wine. After the service, you are invited to gather on the patio for fellowship and refreshments. If you are worshiping here for the first time please fill out a newcomer card found in the pew and take it to the Welcome Center (with the pink tablecloth) on the patio after Sunday worship or hand it to an usher. We hope we will have more opportunities to grow together. Wherever you are on your faith journey, All Saints is honored to partner with you in ministry. Ask an usher or greeter for help if you need directions to any building on campus.

FINDING YOUR WAY THROUGH THE SERVICE

The worship bulletin will be your basic guide through this service's liturgy. Hymns: the hymn numbers are listed on the Hymn Board at the front of the church as well as in the bulletin. The Hymnal is the blue book in the pew rack in front of you. The Lessons: You may enjoy simply listening to the readings as Christians did for centuries, or you may follow along with the scripture readings in the bulletin. The Book of Common Prayer: This smaller red book in the pew rack is the principal book of liturgy for Episcopalians. Prayer: You will find that some people stand in prayer while others kneel. Please do what makes you feel comfortable. Holy Communion: All are lovingly invited to the Lord's table.

GODLY PLAY IS COMING TO ALL SAINTS!

We are very excited to announce that Godly Play curriculum is coming to All Saints! This curriculum will be introduced to our Sunday School, grades Pre-School through fifth grades, when we begin our new Sunday School year on September 18! Godly Play is a unique way of doing Christian Formation. Developed by Jerome Berryman, an Episcopal priest, Godly Play uses religious language, parable, sacred story, liturgical action, and wondering to help children discover the deep resources of our faith. Our Sunday School teachers and volunteers will be busy throughout August and September with Godly Play training and converting our classrooms into Godly Play space. For parents, grandparents, or others interested in learning more about the curriculum and Godly Play approach, you are welcome to visit one of our two training sessions: August 19 from 6 to 9:00p.m. followed by August 20 and 27 from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.; or September16 from 6 to 9:00 p.m. followed by September 17 and 24 from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Our training sessions will be conducted on our campus by the Rev. Carren Sheldon from Holy Trinity in Santa Barbara. If you wish to attend, please contact Rev. Vicki at the church.

SUMMER MUSIC – UPCOMING EVENTS

Our summer at All Saints has been filled with the music of a wide variety of musicians. We've been especially blessed to have a number of our own members playing and singing at the 10:00 service.

Our summer series continues through early September. This coming Sunday, Aug 7, we'll salute Fiesta with guest classical guitarist Anthony Ybarra. August 14, we'll be privileged to welcome our own Robert Brown and Patrick Hackney, playing guitar and mandolin. August 21, our own Valerie Hasley and her vocal ensemble, Vocabella, will be with us. August 28, we'll welcome the Santa Barbara EFM singers and on September 4, our own Eventide Band will lead the music of the 10am service.

You will not want to miss a single moment of these upcoming Sundays!!!

BELL TOWER CONSTRUCTION

During the construction we will need to enter and exit the church using the door on the front right hand side of the church (closest to the Parish House) and the Vesting Room door. You'll also notice some stained glass windows have been boarded up to preserve them in place during construction. If you have any questions or concerns about this project, please call the church office (805) 969-4771.

In preparation for our permit filings, Bob Easton and our structural engineer have begun preliminary investigations beyond the entrance area. Patching these areas may continue beyond this Sunday.

We rotate out books every several months to make room for the new. Gently used books may be dropped off during the week in the office or on Sundays at the Book Cart location on the patio. BOOK GROUP

Our next All Saints Book Group meets on Monday, September 12 at 6:00 p.m. in the Parish House. We will be discussing Ordinary Grace by William Kent Krueger. " A respected mystery writer turns his attention to the biggest mystery of all: God. An award-winning author for his long-running Cork O'Connor series, Krueger aims higher and hits harder with a standalone novel that shares much with his other work…'the awful grace of God,' as it manifests itself within the novel, would try the faith of the most devout believer. Yet, ultimately, the world of this novel is one of redemptive grace and mercy, as well as unidentified corpses and unexplainable tragedy. A novel that transforms narrator and reader alike." (Kirkus Reviews) Join us for potluck dinner, fellowship, and lively discussion. Please bring a dish and beverage (wine or soda) to share. All are welcome! Please contact Rev. Vicki with questions (vicki@asbts.org).
