MOTHERS DAY AT ALL SAINTS

Mothers' Day this year is May 11. As a part of our celebrations that morning, we will be offering special prayers for all our mothers, and all who have served that mothering role for us in our lives. One of the visual representations that day will be a collection of pictures on our altar of those who have been our mothers – familial, spiritual, and otherwise. If you would like to have those special people represented that day, we invite you to bring in a small framed picture (with your name clearly identified on the back) for use that morning. You can bring those pictures to the church any time from now until the beginning of the service on May 11 and you will be able to retrieve your pictures any time after the conclusion of our 10 a.m. service that morning. Fr. Bob is kicking things off with the photo of his mother, pictured above.

Also, please note, we will be doing a similar display for Fathers' Day on June 15, so be dusting off a picture of dear old dad as well.

Sanctuary Readiness Project Update: Town Hall Meeting Set for May 18, Plan to Attend, Ask Questions.

Mark your calendars for Sunday, May 18 after the 10 a.m. service for a Town Hall meeting. Many details about the project designed to prepare our beloved Sanctuary for its next 100 years have been refined since our parishwide survey and last parish meeting.

Come and learn about the latest details of the plan and ask questions!

BAPTISM OPPORTUNITY AT PENTECOST

Pentecost is right around the corner and it's the next time that we celebrate baptisms at All Saints. If you or someone you love wishes to be baptized on Pentecost Sunday, June 8, please contact Fr. Bob by Sunday, May 25, to let him know of your intentions.

There will be special liturgy and music that day to celebrate the birth of the church and the coming of the Holy Spirit.

New Art in the Church Office

All Saints is blessed with a great number of visual artists, working in a variety of media. Every two months, a new artist hangs their work in the Church Office for parishioners and visitors to enjoy. The works on display in May and June belong to life-long parishioner Jennifer Riley. With strong influences including Ansel Adams and Bret Weston, Jennifer has found an interesting way of creating abstract art through found reflections including car bodywork and puddles. This is not the first time Jennifer's photography has been exhibited. She won Juror's Choice award at the Santa Barbara Art Association show in 2010 and was also in a juried show at Westmont in 2012.

Next Sunday, May 11, after both services, Jennifer will host a reception in the Church Office for all to view her work. Plan to get your coffee and head across the street that day.

If you are an artist interested in displaying your art in the Church Office, please contact the coordinator for this program, Tony Askew, at askew@westmont.edu and let him know. We would love to share in your work!

Discernment Committee Update

The deadline for applications for our Rector position was March 1, and since that date the Discernment Committee has been meeting candidates by video-conference to start narrowing the field. Having interviewed more than 20 priests in this way, they now have the task of reducing that list to around six that the committee will send representatives to visit in their current parishes. Discernment Committee chairs Denny Bacon and Andy Rosenberger report that this will be hard work as there have been a number of truly exceptional candidates. More updates will be published as available at www.asbts.org.

DEATH COMES FOR THE ARCHBISHOP: ALL SAINTS BOOK GROUP MEETS AGAIN

In this classic 1927 novel by Willa Cather, Bishop Jean Marie Latour travels with his friend Fr. Joseph Vaillant from Ohio to New Mexico to take charge of the newly established diocese of New Mexico. The pair must travel by riverboat to the Gulf of Mexico, and then overland to New Mexico, a journey which takes an entire year.

The names given to the main characters reflect their personalities: Latour, the tower, is intellectual and reserved, while Fr. Vaillant, valiant, is fearless in his promulgation of the faith. Several of the entrenched Spanish-Mexican priests they are sent to supplant are depicted as examples of greed, avarice, and gluttony, while others live simple, abstemious lives among the Native Americans.

Pick up a copy of this fantastic novel and join the Book Group on May 12 at 6 p.m. for a pot-luck dinner and engaging discussion.

All Saints Prayer List

If you would like to place a name on the prayer list, please call or email the Church Office to let staff know. Names will be kept on the list for six weeks and then removed, unless someone calls to put them back on.

Volunteers Needed to Deliver Flowers

After the 10 a.m. service our beautiful floral arrangements are made into bouquets to be delivered by willing volunteers to sick or senior members of the parish, or those celebrating special occasions.

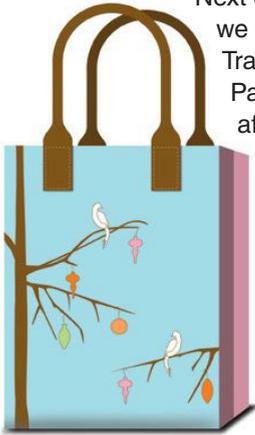

If your route home this morning takes you near the Riviera, Carpinteria, the Mesa, or Por La Mar Circle, consider talking to Anne Hopkinson in the Flower Room and brighten someone's day with a bouquet of altar flowers. You'll be glad you did!

MOTHER'S DAY AT TRANSITION HOUSE

Next Sunday, May 11, is Mother's Day and with your help we will provide a gift bag for each mom who is living at the Transition House temporary shelter. Parishioners Lindsey Parks and Patrice Mueller will be at the Welcome Table after the 10 a.m. service this morning collecting small gift items such as lotions, shower gels, cosmetics, jewelry, scarves and also monetary donations that we will use to purchase gift cards for each mom. Monetary donations can also be mailed to the Church Office (or made online, thanks to our new secure giving portal) with the notation that it is for Transition House Mother's Day Gift bags. Contact Patrice at patricemueller@cox.net or Lindsey at lindsey.horse@yahoo.com for more information.
