NEWS AND INFORMATION FOR THE PARISH OF ALL SAINTS-BY-THE-SEA

WELCOME TO ALL SAINTS-BY-THE-SEA EPISCOPAL CHURCH!

August 23, 2015

It is wonderful to worship with one another in song, prayer, praise and in sharing a holy meal of bread and wine. After the service, you are invited to gather on the patio for fellowship and refreshments. If you are worshipping here for the first time please fill out a newcomer card found in the pew and take it to the Welcome Center (with the pink tablecloth) on the patio after Sunday worship or hand it to an usher. We hope we will have more opportunities to grow together. Wherever you are on your faith journey, All Saints is honored to partner with you in ministry. Ask an usher or greeter for help if you need directions to any building on campus.

FINDING YOUR WAY THROUGH THE SERVICE

The worship bulletin will be your basic guide through this service's liturgy. Hymns: the hymn numbers are listed on the Hymn Board at the front of the church as well as in the bulletin. The Hymnal is the blue book in the pew rack in front of you. The Lessons: You may enjoy simply listening to the readings as Christians did for centuries, or you may follow along with the scripture readings in the bulletin. The Book of Common Prayer: This smaller red book in the pew rack is the principal book of liturgy for Episcopalians. Prayer: You will find that some people stand in prayer while others kneel. Please do what makes you feel comfortable. Holy Communion: All are lovingly invited to the Lord's table.

FALL DATES AT ALL SAINTS

All Saints clergy, staff, and leadership have been busy the past month planning a number of wonderful events that will begin in the Fall. Stay tuned for more information on the upcoming Episcopal 101 classes and Adult Formation, Newcomers Reception, Blessing of the Animals, All Saint's Sunday, Advent Family Workshop, and St. Nicholas Day. This exciting season will begin with Homecoming Sunday on September 13th. We will rejoice in "coming home" after a summer of rest, relaxation, and adventure, and prepare ourselves and our families for the rhythm of life that accompanies a new school year, the back-to-work routine, and the flow of our liturgical calendar. On Homecoming Sunday our entire Parish family will worship together and we will commission the Preschool and Sunday School teachers, and say a prayer for all of our students beginning the new school year. This will be followed by a Potluck on the patio. Another important event in our life at All Saints will be Rev. Aimee Eyer-Delevett's installation as Rector. This is set for Saturday, October 3rd, at 10 a.m. with the Rt. Rev. Mary Glasspool presiding. A festive reception will follow. More details on all of the upcoming events will follow in the coming weeks.

EFM PREVIEW TODAY IN THE PARISH HOUSE

Education for Ministry mentor Robert Brown will present a preview and provide information about the EFM program after the 8 am and 10 am services in the Parish House today. An overview of the program, including history, structure of the seminar, and seminar group life will be presented, along with study materials, texts and registration materials. Grab some coffee and a snack and join us for a group preview of this wonderful vehicle of Christian Formation.

HOMEcomings SUNDAY KICKS OFF ALL SAINTS' MUSICAL SEASON!

On Sunday September 13, All Saints will kick off its 2015-16 musical season during our annual Homecoming Sunday celebration. Everyone of ALL AGES is invited to join our musical forces in leading the 10:00 am worship service. Children, teenagers and adults (and even adult children at heart) will gather before the service, open the service in the procession and join the choir in leading and singing the music of the day. The music will be familiar and accessible to even the youngest among us.

This Homecoming Sunday event will introduce a series of FAMILY SUNDAYS planned during the year. Family Sundays will feature music in worship that is easy to learn and easy and fun to sing, and absolutely EVERYONE in the congregation, young and not all that young anymore, are invited to join the choir in leading the musical worship of the day. Bring the kids, the grand kids, aunts, uncles, moms, dads, in laws and outlaws!! You absolutely will NOT want to miss a moment of these family worship events. Details forthcoming!

MUSIC, FELLOWSHIP, FOOD AND FAMILY

Beginning this Fall, you and your entire family have the opportunity to join other families in singing, dancing, eating, and generally having a great time, right here at All Saints!!

Once each quarter, during the 2015-16 season, All Saints' Music Department will host a family fellowship, food, live music and dance evening designed for all ages. We'll begin with an old-fashioned Square Dance and Bar-B-Que. Accompanied by the sounds of American Bluegrass music, you and your family can SWING YOUR PARTNER, PROMENADE and DO SA DO to your heart's content. If you're new to square dance, don't worry – we'll teach you how!!

During the Winter, we'll host a 1950's Sock Hop. Fonzie, Richie and Joanie will probably not be here, but don't let that stop you! We'll celebrate the "Happy Days" of our lives together as an All Saints family.

Next on the calendar will be an evening of Celtic food and dance. Scheduled near St. Patrick's Day, All Saints will host an Irish Feis (dance festival) complete with loud shoes, rhinestones, curly wigs and soda bread. Again, this will be an opportunity for us all to learn, participate, eat some great food and have a wonderful time together.

We'll close the season with an authentic summer Luau. Bring your grass skirts, leis and "loud" shirts. We'll learn how to dance the hula and maybe eat roast pig, poi and Shave Ice.

These events will be designed to include absolutely ALL AGES. Stay tuned for specifics on dates and times, and get ready for some fabulous family fun at All Saints this year!!

ALL SAINTS' RECYCLED READING TREATS

Our rolling Book Carts offer a variety of gently used (very good condition, no markings, and no highlights) fiction, non-fiction, special interest, and children's books for sale for "good will offerings." Think "Library Book Sale." If a book sparks your interest, donate whatever you feel is in your price range. Books will be available on the second and fourth Sundays of the month during Coffee Hour after each service. Proceeds will support our campus ministries.

CALLING ALL SINGERS!

All Saints' Choir begins a new season in September! All are welcome to join us, as we begin a new year of leading the Church's song in worship. We rehearse Thursday evenings from 7pm - 9 pm in the church. We'll kick off the season, by singing for the 1st time during our homecoming service, September 13 at 10am.

If you'd like to participate in this vital ministry, simply come to our 1st rehearsal, September 10, or call or email Steve O'Connor (805 969-4771, ext 109 - steve@asbts.org) for more information.

Join us this year, won't you?

NEW DATE & TIME FOR WEEKLY BIBLE & BABBLE

Bible & Bible will resume in the fall at a new time and on a new day. Beginning September 22, we will meet at 6:00 p.m. on Tuesdays in the Parish House for Bible Study and Potluck. Please join us for this time of discussion and fellowship. We study the upcoming scripture readings for Sunday based on the Revised Common Lectionary and use as our text Keeping Holy Time edited by Douglas E. Wingeier. Please contact Rev. Vicki at the church with questions, vicki@asbts.org.

OUTREACH MINISTRIES & OTHER NEWS

CLEVELAND ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Cleveland Elementary School is a year-round school, and home to approximately 380 students, grades K-6, most of whom are eligible for free breakfast and lunch. In 2014, Cleveland was chosen as our parish's focus project. Opportunities to serve this important ministry include: becoming a homework tutor; assisting the school office with administrative help; assisting the PTA; helping in the library; gardening on the weekends; joining the "lunch bunch", eating lunch with the children periodically; or serving as an advocate for the school and neighborhood at City Hall. Volunteers are always needed. Contact Susan Evans for more information. susanfevans@icloud.com

DO SOMETHING DIFFERENT THIS SUMMER FOR COMMUNITY SERVICE HOURS

Young All Saints parishioners (under 18) are invited to think beyond themselves and help feed the homeless and needy at the following locations and dates:

Serve lunch at Casa Esperanza homeless center in Santa Barbara Tuesday, August 25

Distribute free fruit and veggies in Carp August 26

Serve dinner to Isla Vista homeless Monday, August 31

You will feel good while doing good!
